Becoming Part of the Ever Wider “We”
WAYS YOU CAN SUPPORT AFGHAN ALLIES, REFUGEES, AND NEW NEIGHBORS

THE JOHN J. BRUNETTI HUMAN TRAFFICKING ACADEMY
Learn more about World Day of Migrants & Refugees and access publications, data, on-demand videos, and more at the John J. Brunetti Human Trafficking Academy’s resource page.

- www.humantraffickingacademy.org/WDMR2021

U.S. CATHOLIC SISTERS AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING (USCSAHT)
Learn about the intersection between forced migration and human trafficking and what you can do to make a difference.

- www.sistersagainsttrafficking.org
- sistersagainsttrafficking.org/migration&trafficking

U.S. CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS (USCCB)
For continually updated information and resources relevant to the relocation of Afghans to the U.S. and how you can help, visit the JFI Afghanistan Resource Page.

- justiceforimmigrants.org/afghanistan

Learn more about Parishes Organized to Welcome Immigrants and Refugees (POWIR) - a program that builds the capacity of Catholic Charities resettlement agencies to engage parishes and community members in welcoming newcomers.

- www.usccb.org

REFUGEE COUNCIL USA
Find out about opportunities to support and welcome refugees through your local resettlement agency. Type in your zip code in RCUSA’s Volunteer Map for more information about what may be available in your city or town.

- rcusa.org

HELLO NEIGHBOR
Hello Neighbor’s virtual volunteer opportunities in support of refugees and immigrants are available to anyone living in the United States.

- www.helloneighbor.io

WELCOME.US
Join the national effort to welcome and support Afghan families as they build new lives in communities across America.

- welcome.us